Cake Serving Guide

Round cake cut into triangular sections
using concentric circles.

10" Cake with one 2.5" concentric circle cut.

Serving sizes are estimates.

22 slices gives the most consistent serving size (top left diagram).

10" Round Cake

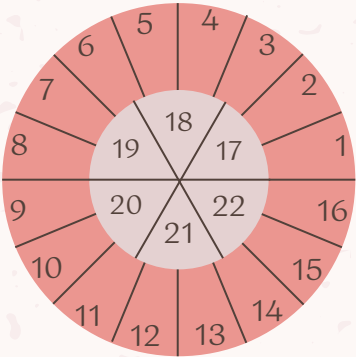

Outer circle sliced into
16 pieces.

One concentric circle
cut 2.5" from the outer edge of the 10" cake.

This produces a
5" inner circle.

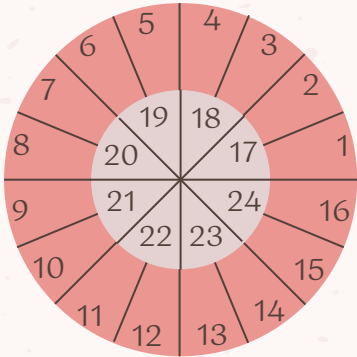

Serves
22 - 26

Pieces will be larger.

22 Slices

Outer Pieces (16)
1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (6)
1.5" x 2"

24 Slices

Outer Pieces (16)
1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (8)
1.5" x 1.5"

26 Slices

Outer Pieces (16)
1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (10)
1" x 2"

The outer circle can be cut in the same manner with smaller pieces.
The total slices & the slice sizes are listed below.

10" Round Cake

Outer circle sliced into 18 pieces.

Serves
24 - 28

24 Slices

Outer Pieces (18)
1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (6)
1.5" x 2"

26 Slices

Outer Pieces (18)

Inner Pieces (8)
1.5" x 1.5"

28 Slices

Outer Pieces (18)
1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (10)
1" x 2"

10" Round Cake

Outer circle sliced into 20 pieces.

Serves
26 - 30

26 Slices

Outer Pieces (20)
a little less than 1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (6)
1.5" x 2"

28 Slices

Outer Pieces (20)
a little more than 1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (8)
1.5" x 1.5"

30 Slices

Outer Pieces (20)
a little less than 1.5" x 2"
Inner Pieces (10)
1" x 2"

Jordet's Homemade Delights uses 1.5" x 2" pieces and uses 22 to 24 slices for a 10" round cake with 5" inner circle.
